1. As the flame of faith is car - ried, as the torch of faith is passed,
2. As the sea - sons spin and fol - low, as our sto - ries long en - dure,
3. May we learn to tell the sto - ry, keep the flame of faith a - blaze;

Reach - ing 'cross the gen - er - a - tions, each re - cei - ving from the last,
Like an ev - er - flo - wing riv - er, so the cov - e - nant is pure.
May we strive to keep the Gos - pel as the cen - ter of our days.

So the prom - ise to God's peo - ple is re - ceived, then han - ded down,
In our span of earth - ly liv - ing, as the great or as the least,
As we keep the faith - ful Spi - rit bright - ly bur - ning, lif - ted high,

In the light of our bap-tis - m, through our fam' - lies, faith is found.
 Still we find in book and ta - ble Christ the Word and Christ the Feast.
 May each gen - er - a - tion fol - low with Christ's light to jour - ney by.
